

TO: ALL MEMBERS and INTERESTED FIRMS
RE: September 2, 2010 teleconference... SIGN UP NOW!
Donning & Doffing

Sponsored by

The purpose of this teleconference is to discuss and receive comments on FSIS's Proposed Rule "Changes to the Schedule of Operations Regulation."

Quick and easy method to get informed!

FSIS Proposed Rule on Donning & Doffing

September 2, 2010

Thursday, 10:00am-11:00am (Pacific)

FSIS Tackles Donning & Doffing

What the Regulation Actually Does & Why Does FSIS Care?
So Where Are We On This Rule?

How Does This Cost Me Money?

Pick Your Poison

Shorten the Production Day or More Overtime for Everyone!

What About Lunch?

A Longer Lunch for All! And It's Paid Too

So How Much Time Are We Talking About?

Our Objectives Going Forward

The Immovable Object-Recognizing a Settlement is Unavoidable

The Need to Create A Methodology We Can Work With

Assessing Donning & Doffing Time

Tracking Walking Time

Recommended Practices

Questions & Answers

Speaker

JOHN E. CRUICKSHANK

Attorney at Law with Alaniz & Schraeder who specializes in wage and hour law.

All teleconference participants will receive instructions for simple dial-up procedures and an agenda upon receipt of registration. Confidentiality of questions is enforced. Maximize your time and dollars by putting this conference on a speakerphone for your key management people.

REGISTER TODAY! fax to: 510-763-6186

Name ..... Company .....

Phone ..... Fax .....

Teleconference Fee     $100 NMA Member                       $150 Non-member
Payment Method:     Check     Credit Card     MC     VISA

Signature ..... Card # ..... Exp. Date .....